Career Day

Every year the primary project of the Key Club is Career Day. Career Day is a program in which the students at Cambridge High School are given an opportunity to listen and ask questions about the careers they are interested in undertaking after graduation from high school or college.

This year's Career Day was acclaimed the best of many others held at the high school. The event was opened by the keynote speaker, Mayor Sensenbrenner of Columbus, and was closed by an appreciation luncheon given by the Kiwanis for the consultants.

A hand of thanks is extended to the Kiwanis Club, the Guidance Department, and the Key Clubbers for a fine Career Day.

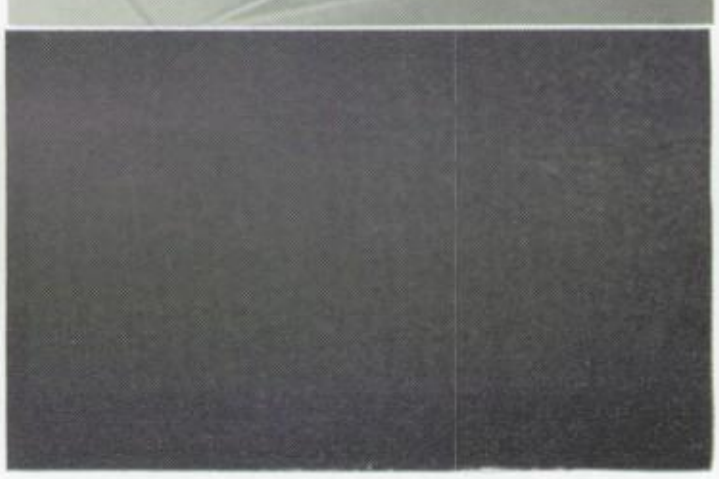
Administration



and Faculty

Superintendent

Coming to Cambridge in 1956, Mr. Shelby has directed the Cambridge City Schools through a period of growth in enrollment and enrichment of curriculum.

Vocational education in the fields of business, home economics, trade and industry, and electronics; summer school on both the elementary and secondary levels; and evening adult education classes have provided greater educational opportunities for the entire community.

Educational television in the classrooms throughout the city and the inauguration of an inservice training program for teachers, using the Telecommunication Program sponsored by Ohio State University over WOSU, have been well received by all participants.

Mr. Shelby's interest in educational television is evidenced by the fact that he has been re-elected to a three year term on the Board of Directors of the Midwest Program Airborne Television Instruction, covering six states.

In a more recent effort to help the Cambridge City Schools make progress in these changing times, Mr. Shelby has been making a study of the Appalachia Program and the new Federal Aid to Education Bill to find ways that our schools can benefit from these programs.

Mr. Thomas and Mr. Shelby

Mr. H. Dale Thomas began teaching in the Cambridge City Schools in 1919, remaining a total of forty-five years. He was an instructor in the Industrial Arts Department, then supervisor of the department, and for the past sixteen years, has been Business Manager for the Cambridge City School System.

Mr. Thomas has been loyal, efficient, and dedicated to doing his best for the boys and girls of the Cambridge City Schools.

During the building of the high school, Mr. Thomas was responsible for purchasing all of the moveable equipment, thus saving thousands of dollars in commissions.

During his tenure in the Cambridge City Schools, he has accumulated a vast store of knowledge about our buildings. After his retirement, at the end of this school year, he will undoubtedly be called many times for advice and suggestions.

"There may be schools just as good, but there are none better than Cambridge High School."

A Salute . . .

At the close of this school year, our principal, Mr. Cecil J. McFarland, will assume his new position as Assistant Superintendent of the Cambridge City School System, dividing his time between the supervision of instruction on the secondary level, and procurement.

Mr. McFarland began his teaching career in the Cambridge schools in 1934. He taught general science and physics from 1934 to 1942 and then served in the armed forces for four years. Returning to Cambridge High School, he taught chemistry and physics from 1946 to 1952, and was Guidance Director and chemistry instructor from 1952 to 1954. In 1954 he was named Principal of Cambridge High School.

During the time Mr. McFarland has served as principal, our high school has grown from a three-year high school with an enrollment of 533 to a four-year high school with an enrollment of 1100. In keeping with the larger enrollment, our faculty has increased from 29 to 54, many new departments have been added, and more modern and efficient methods have been adopted.

Many of the changes came when the new high school building was built, and the smooth transition to the new situation was largely because of the careful planning, the meticulous attention to details, and the thoughtful concern for students and teachers, which are characteristic of Mr. McFarland.

"Among our fond memories of Mr. McFarland," one teacher remarked, "is his unflagging enthusiasm for Cambridge High School." He sincerely believes, and has worked day and night to make sure, that "There may be schools just as good, but there are none better than Cambridge High School."

Students will long remember his helpfulness in assisting them to solve their problems and his faithful attendance at extra curricular events. In the words of one student — "Mr. McFarland is the man who has made Cambridge High School rise to new heights. He is looked up to and respected by every student. He knows how to handle students and can give out better know how than any teacher in the high school. He will be missed at Cambridge High."

"Teachers will remember Mr. McFarland as one who was never too busy to listen to their problems," said one faculty member. "Although we wish him success in his new position, we of the faculty and student body will miss his presence as administrator at Cambridge High School."

Thus we salute a fine leader and a sincere friend . . . and wish for him success and a deep satisfaction in his new position.

Assistant Principal

Mr. Sanford Lyne began his teaching career in the Cambridge schools in 1939. After teaching literature, civics and mathematics in the junior high school for 10 years, he became instructor of geometry and physics in the senior high school in 1959. In 1962 he took over the duties of assistant principal, and at the close of this school year will assume the position of high school principal.

We pledge to Mr. Lyne our wholehearted cooperation and wish him success in his new position.

Custodians

IN APPRECIATION

In any large production there are many individuals who work behind the scenes, at unusual hours, and in various places, but who are most essential to the success of the production.

Here at Cambridge High School the cafeteria ladies, the bus drivers and the custodians — whose services we often take for granted — contribute much to the comfort and efficiency of each school day.

Other activities were the supplying of flags for thirteen home rooms, the bulletin board displays, letter exchanges with nearby schools, the "Forgotten Patient" project, the cafeteria clean-up campaign, and the student council member evaluation project, which was held at the end of the year. The council also operated the coat check room at all home basketball games, assisted in seating the student body for assemblies, sponsored an assembly, and completed the school dinnerware service.

Junior Class Play

The Junior Class Play, It Couldn't Have Happened to a Nicer Girl, was presented on Saturday, April twenty-fourth.

Maudie; a vivacious teen-ager, teaches her shy cousin, Joy, how to attract the boys. Maudie causes some grief by her matchmaking systems and the play is given a different switch when Joy captures all the boys. Maudie finally decides to discard her "systems" and simply tell the truth.

In the spring members of the club observe and assist teachers in the elementary grades. This experience helps the student gain an insight into the duties of the teacher.

The club awards a scholarship annually to a senior to be used toward the purchase of college text books. Money for this project this year was raised by sponsoring an after-game dance, publishing the 1964-65 Student Directory, and selling gift-wrapping bows.

Football

"Now, we've got the boys on our term. They're g-r-r-r-r-eat!" This was a well-deserved cheer during this year's football season. The fighting Bobcats, led by co-captains Mike Kafury and Dave Suitt and under the magnificent leadership of Head Coach George Strager, ended their season with five wins and five losses.

The heartbreak of the year was our Homecoming game with Zanesville. With two minutes remaining in the year's hardest fought game, we fell to defeat with a score of 6-0.

A great year is now over. We bid the seniors a fond farewell and urge the juniors and sophomores on to an even better year in the fall of 1965.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Top to bottom: Sara Swern, Lennie Berry, Cheryl Oliver, Juanita Kerr, Linda McLaughlin, Sherry Stroud.

Cheryl Oliver

The six girls probably most familiar to Cambridge High School students are the Varsity Cheerleaders.

To these girls go the responsibility of planning pep rallies, boosting team spirit, and leading the Bobcat fans in cheers at all football and basketball games.

Captain Cheryl Oliver, Sherry Stroud, Sara Swern, Linda McLaughlin, Lennie Berry, Juanita Kerr, and their advisor, Miss Ella Stull, deserve our sincere thanks and appreciation.

Varsity Basketball

From November to March the Bobcats have shown their fans many exciting basketball games. With nine juniors and three seniors, the team ended the season with a record of nine wins and nine losses. Paul Kegley, the new coach, had five returning lettermen.

The team played several close games. In the first night of tournament action, they faced a heart-breaking defeat by losing, 65 to 69, after being ahead most of the game.

With most of the squad returning next year, the Bobcat fans are looking forward to next year for a great season.

Pep Club

Who are the students who stand behind the team, winning or losing? who cheer the loudest when we win? and who follow the cheerleaders the closest? Why, the members of the Pep Club, of course. This is a club for the support of all sports in Cambridge High School. At all home basketball games the members sit together and all wear white blouses or shirts for a very impressive look. The club helps send cheerleaders to summer camp, helps sponsor after-game dances, and this year, sold Bobcat key chains. The many attractive posters in the halls each week were the work of the Poster Committee, while the Goal Post Committee decorated the goal posts in the school colors for every home game.

Officers for 1964-65 were: president, Jeanne Seel; vice president, Beth Hare; secretary, Deborah Thompson, and treasurer, Ellen Cogsil.

Members of the Pep Club Council are: Goal Post Committee, Carol Cross and Vicki Clark; Transportation Committee, Elaine Wheelock and Sandy McManus; Publicity Committee, Suzan Young; Poster Committee, Donna Beatty; Project Committee, Brenda Baker; Usher Committee, Kay McCracken and Sharon Hoyt.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Upon first entering the halls of Cambridge High School as freshmen, we vowed with extreme determination to show everyone what we could do. The first step in gaining recognition was to elect Joseph Castner, Virginia Custer, Paula Domoslay, David Fairchild, Darlene Kirkbride, Everett Mann, Ellen Nickles, Cheryl Oliver, Gary Pletcher, Marjorie Schultze, and James Stewart to represent our class on the student council. As freshmen we were led by our class president, Gary Pletcher; vice president, Joanne Kotoff; treasurer, David Suitt; and secretary, Sara Swern. We received gratefully the wonderful supervision of our advisor, Miss Elizabeth Blackburn.

Being the largest class ever to enter Cambridge High School, we saw the need of appropriate funds to undertake the recommended and traditional class activities. Thus we began our most noted project—the sale of Easter eggs. Many members also contributed their talent by knitting snoot-boots during the cold weather. While this project was not an especially huge financial success, it was different.

On the athletic fields, we were greatly honored when the "Bobkitten" football team completed its season without a loss. David Fairchild, Frank Hebrock, and Richard Vergari brought further honor to the class when they received letter awards in varsity baseball. Sara Swern and Ginger Custer represented the class on the reserve cheerleader squad.

With approaching examinations, and the ending of the year, we completed our activities with the Freshman Class party "Sayonara."

More opportunities were presented to us as sophomores, and we struggled to gain the respect of others in school. To lead us, we chose Joseph Castner, Gary Pletcher, Sara Swern, and James Stewart as class officers. Those taking over responsibility as student council members were Ellen Nickles, Sara Swern, Bette Wayman, Margie Kuhn, Amy Ritzhaupt, Richard Vergari, Joseph Castner, George Suther, James Morisey, Everett Mann, David Fairchild and Gary Pletcher.

We were then given opportunity to join the various high school clubs and activities. A new club, the Trojan Hi-Y, was organized. Many of our classmates participated in Future Teachers, Future Nurses, Future Homemakers, Key Club, Hi-Y, Y-Teens, Red Cross, Y-GAA, Reporter, Art Club, Traffic Safety Club, and the music departments.

In building our class funds, we sold "Bobcat" football dolls and Easter eggs. We showed such good taste in choosing our class rings that year, that the same emblem was chosen to adorn our senior commencement announcements.

The ranks of the C. H. S. band were bolstered by the sophomore band members. Mary Ann Golladay and Barbara Zaring were selected as majorettes.

"GINGER"

We sophomores again reaped honors in the field of sports. Joseph Allen, Michael Kafury, Gary Pletcher, James Stewart and David Suitt received varsity letters in football. The track team, which finished the season with an excellent record, was supported by many of our class. Jeff Stover, a sophomore, also helped the golf team in a fine season. We were represented in reserve cheerleading by Cheryl Oliver, Sara Swern, and Ginger Custer.

With our sophomore class party, "Moonlight and Roses", we brought to a close our second year at Cambridge High School.

Finally we were upperclass juniors — the loudest, largest, and best class in the school. This was the year for our largest project, the Junior-Senior prom. With total class participation we created a "Soiree in Paree". Kay McCracken and Richard Vergari were the co-ordinators of this enchanted evening.

Our officers for the year were James Stewart, David Fairchild, David Suitt, and David Knapp.

The class was well represented on the student council by Kay McCracken, Joanne Kotoff, Ann Varney, Timothy Scott, Richard Vergari, James Stewart, David Knapp, Ellen Nickles, Jon Thompson, George Suther, Sara Swern, and David Fairchild. Joanne Kotoff was elected the Student Council president.

In our various activities we were honored when James Henderson was elected president of the Trojan Hi-Y and Sue Gibson was elected president of the Youth Red Cross. Jon Thompson was elected Lieutenant Governor of Division 18 of Ohio District of Key Clubs. Sherry Stroud and Cheryl Oliver were chosen for the varsity cheerleading squad.

Under the supervision of Miss Marian Atkins, the Cantab Editorial Board, composed of Elaine Wheelock, Marjorie Schultze, Cinda Bremigan, Joanne Kotoff and Gordon Foraker, proudly conducted the publication of the 1964 edition of the Cantab.

Junior scholastic achievement was noted when Sue McManus, Marjorie Schultze, George Suther, Tom Dunlavy, Linn Davey, Barbara Zaring, Richard Baker, David Suitt, Patty King, David Knapp, Cinda Bremigan, Dottie Dupler, Mary Druesedow, Ellen Nickles, Kay McCracken, Johanna Rubican, Patty Clary and Sonja Burris were inducted into the National Honor Society in the spring.

Mary Druesedow proved outstanding scholastically when she received an honorable mention in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Mary Ann Golladay, Barbara Zaring, and Ellen Nickles marched in the majorette line. The contest band went to Springfield, Ohio for the State Band Contest.

Under the direction of Miss Lucille Johnson, we presented "The Remarkable Incident at Carson's Corners," an intriguing mystery play.

In preparing for the annual array of summer conferences we chose Gary Pletcher, Joseph Castner, David Fairchild, and James Stewart to represent our class at Buckeye Boys' State, held in Athens, Ohio. Barbara Zaring, Ellen Nickles, and Kay McCracken attended Buckeye Girls' State. The Student Council chose Joanne Kotoff and Richard Vergari to represent the school at the Ohio Association of Student Councils.

At last we had reached the ultimate level in our secondary education — we were seniors.

S-E-N-I-O-R-S S-E-N-I-O-R-S

Are we Seniors? Yes! Yes! Yes!

We're the best at C.H.S.

We again selected James Stewart to serve in the capacity of class president. He was ably assisted by John Fogle, David Knapp, and Dick Franklin.

The student council, consisting of senior members Joanne Kotoff, Elva McFarland, Gary Pletcher, Leah Jones, Richard Vergari, Timothy Scott, David Fairchild, Fran Brandt, Ellen Nickles, Kay McCracken, and Jon Thompson, sponsored several activities.

Mary Druesedow receives Honorable mention in National Merit Scholarship test.

Michael Kafury and David Suitt did a fine job as co-captains of our football team, as did Jeffrey Stover, captain of the basketball team. Who can forget the thrilling Homecoming game with Zanesville and that mighty defeat we handed Martins Ferry, in which every senior played his best? Our track team returned with a beautiful trophy for winning the big meet at Dover.

Our senior cheerleaders were Sara Swern, Sherry Stroud, and captain Cheryl Oliver. Jo Finney was a fine addition to the marching band majorette line.

The following seniors provided leadership in school activities: David Fairchild, Key Club; Joanne Kotoff, Student Council; Kay McCracken, National Honor Society; Barbara Zaring, Y-Teens; Cinda Bremigan, Future Teachers; Jeanne Seel, Pep Club; Margie Kuhn, G.A.A.; Kenny Saft, Traffic Safety Club; Mike McVicker, Band; Pamela Domoslay, Future Nurses; Peggy Knouff, Future Homemakers; James Jackson, Beau Art Club; Richard Baker, Choir; Randall Eckelberry, Spartan Hi-Y; James Morisey, Trojan Hi-Y; Jon Thompson, editor of Jeffersonian J.G.; Susan Young, Youth Red Cross; Janice Patterson, C.O.E.; Mary Jean Moore, T and I: Carol Watson and Thomas Dunlavy, Reporter Co-Editors. The senior class can be proud of the fine work accomplished by these students.

The 1964 Homecoming Queen was Virginia Custer. Her attendants were Jennie Lou Secrest, Sara Swern, Ellen Nickles, and Barbara Zaring.

James Henderson, Ellen Nickles, Kay McCracken, Francis Brandt, James Stewart—Easter Chapel.

At the Y-Teen formal "Showboat", Barbara Zaring was selected queen with Susan Young the maid of honor. The May Queen, Sara Swern, and her court, Jo Finney, Margaret Kuhn, Cheryl Oliver, and Susan Young, presided over the Invitational Track meet and the May Day Dance.

Members of the class of '65 made great contributions to the music departments. Orchestra, choir, and band concerts were enjoyed by all. The following participated in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest: Mary Druesedow, Johanna Rubican, Elaine Wheelock, Judy Hannum, Marty Wade, Ellen Nickles, Michael McVicker, Dale Brenning, and Carol Smith. Michael McVicker received the Arion Award for his work in band. The marching band was very ably led by head majorette Mary Ann Golladay. The senior band members reached the state level for contest bands for the fourth consecutive year.

SINGING CLOWNS

CLOWNING SINGERS?

We were represented at the World Current Affairs Institute at Cincinnati by Mary Druesedow, Elaine Wheelock, Linda Petzler, Jay Wharton, and Richard Baker. Elva McFarland honored our school and class when she received a "superior" rating on her project at the State Science Fair.

Our student announcers were David Fairchild, James Stewart, Thomas Dunlavy, Kay McCracken, Barbara Zaring, and Joanne Kotoff.

We were the first class to make use of the newly acquired school organ, which was played at several school functions by Jon Thompson.

We ended our final year with the Senior Class Play, "Clementine", the Junior-Senior Prom, Senior Day Off, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

Yes, it was a long four years, and we struggled through them. But we cannot forget that our teachers lighted the spark in our minds, the spark that grows to be the flame and desire by which man's knowledge is acquired.

Always remember—

" 'Tis education forms the common mind.
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."
